

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

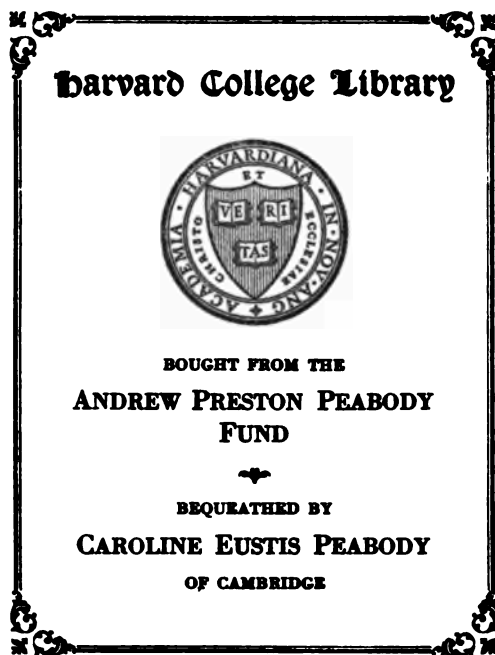

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. My Dearest

I am so well pleased with Clifford's performance in making up the Bed which came down by the Carrier that instead of sending down the damask I rather choose that he should make it up in Town and that it should be sent hither as soon as it is made up I would have it made as plain and neat as can be to which end you must get the Assistance of Miss Lane in buying such Lace and binding as is suitable and cheap You would do well to see what Clifford will have for the Jobb the Teaster should be as plain as possible and no wrought work about it the Curtains the Vallens and the cover I would likewise have clean but without any kind of Ornament for that would be expensive when he has done his Work I would desire that these Things may be put up in a Box and sent down to me the Bedstead I will buy here unless Clifford should advise you to have one in Town because by so doing he can fit the Bed to it I would have no wooden Teaster because I think the Teister pasted upon Buckram will do better and come down with more ease and safety run into as little Expence as possible in this because there is no need of laying out more than is absolutely convenient at Islip when Miss Lane and You have talked with Clifford be so good as to transmit me a short account what my charge will be I will make You as handsome a present as I can in Lieu of this sometime before the Summer ends keep this Letter by You and as any thing at Islip is easily removeable to Fulwell remember I give You all that You may find there in case I should dye I must entreat You to press your Brother in my Name not to fail being in Oxford this day seven-night if he Loiters in Town so much against my desire and his own Interest I will never forgive him as long as I live pray make my Compliments to M^r Bathurst and to all Friends and to assure yourself that I am with a most paternal and affectionate Attachm^t

Yours

L. BRODRICK.

I would have the Bed about eight foot or eight and a half high for the Rooms at Islip I think are not above nine foot four Inches or nine and a half.

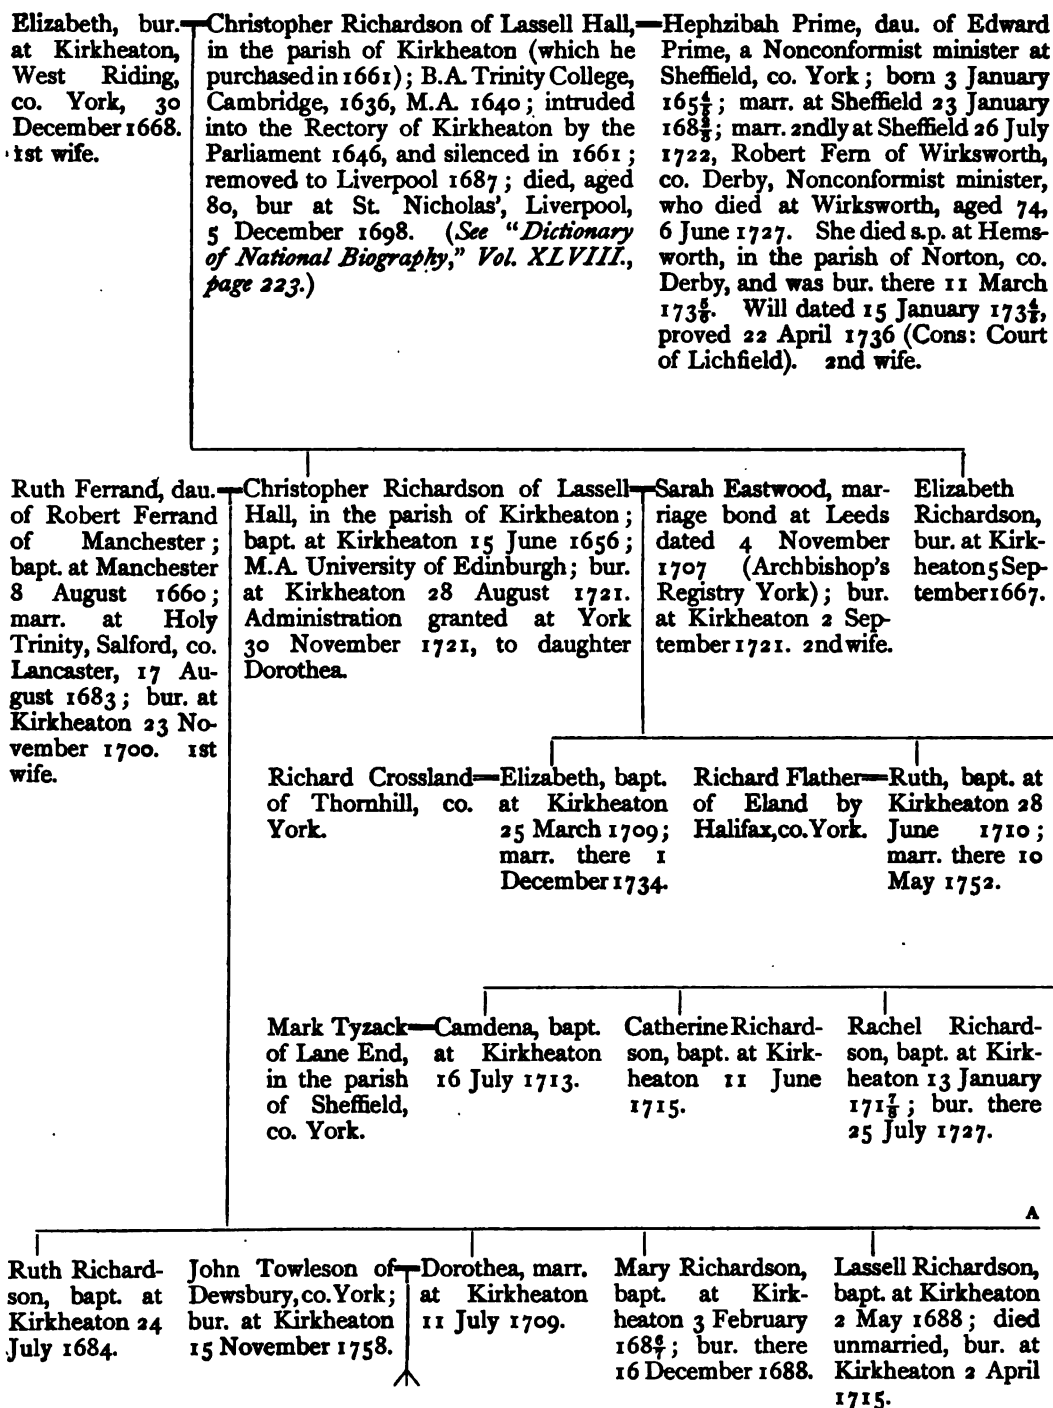

To M^{rs} Bathurst.

Letter from Archdeacon Eaton to his brother.

Dear Brother

You will I am sure rejoice to see that my letters are still frank'd by the Bishop of London, who was elected on Monday, and will in a few days be in full possession of the See of London: it is needless to tell you, who are so well acquainted with his character and abilities, that his promotion gives universal satisfaction; but what gives me particular pleasure is, that even M^{rs} Louth speaks of it as an event, that gives her comfort.

I shall in this frank inclose M^r Sibbalds receipt, Sir J: C: Turner's three d^o M^c Bills, and Dr. Pearce's; the payment of Turners Ann^y makes I perceive a small balance in our account in my favour; and if you have any cash to spare, you may as well contrive to send it to Goslings, as Dr. Wallers affairs will be settled this evening, and I shall probably be called upon before Christmas to make good my engagements to some of his Creditors. Some time ago I desired you to send my Cow, and gave particular directions about it; did you receive that letter? my wish is to have you to settle with the Drover's man to drive the Cow to Northall; as it will be difficult for me to contrive to meet her on the road.

I have been applied to for some of my Sisters Fit-powder; when you have an opportunity send some, with instructions how to use them. With love to my Sister & Children,

I am

Yours most affectionately

St. Eaton
